SEARCH WARRANTS SERVED IN MIGRANT VANDALISM CASE

(San Diego) This morning, detectives from Northeastern Division served search warrants at the residences of Julie Adams and Jeff Schwilk. Adams lives in Rancho Peñasquitos and Schwilk recently moved to Oceanside. These warrants were granted as part of the investigation into the migrant camp vandalism that occurred on January 27, 2007.

On that date in January, suspects entered the migrant encampment area near Rancho Peñasquitos and damaged personal property belonging to the migrants. New clothing, tents, sleeping bags, jackets, and other assorted items were cut up and damaged during this incident.

Last month, a search warrant was also served at the residence of Christy Czajkowski. That warrant service resulted in the confiscation of a personal computer, a video camera and videotapes.

The investigation into this case continues. There have been no arrests thus far.

Anyone with information on this case is encouraged to call Northeastern Division at (858) 538-8000 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS. Crime Stoppers offers up to a $1000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest and you can remain anonymous.
